Political Notes From Frankfort.

HON. W. G. HUNTER won the Republican caucus nomination for Senator at Frankfort Saturday morning on the first ballot. The vote stood: Hunter, 38; Holt, 15; Boyle, 5; Lewis, 5; Yerkes, 2. (See dispatch on second page.) No attempt was made to hold a joint session to elect a Senator, Lieut. Gov. Worthington ruling that a ballot can not be taken until March 23.

Gov. Bradley's message to the Legislature goes fully into the subjects proposed for legislation in his proclamation calling the special session. He lays special emphasis on the necessity of legislation to prevent mob violence, and other interesting recommendations are made. THE NEWS prints the message in full on third page.

Senator John P. Salyer, a sound money Democrat, died Saturday at his home at West Liberty. His successor will be elected April 5th, at a special election.

Gov. Bradley shares in Lieut.-Gov. Worthington's opinion that it would not be legal to ballot for Senator until after March 23.

The new Republican members are expected to be seated to-day.

A Republican at Frankfort has bet $300 that Hunter will not be elected. Sixty-nine votes will win, but he claims three Republicans will not vote for Hunter.

Things are lively at the Blackburn headquarters, and it is said that Joe's friends will try to prevent Hunter's election by voting for Gov. Bradley. Jack Chinn is at the Capital ready for fray.

Col. Bosely Smiled.

COL. J. L. BOSELY, of this city, called on Secretary of the Treasury Gage, Friday, at Washington and filed his application for a position as auditor of the Treasury Department. A dispatch from the Capital says Col. Bosely was all smiles when he came out of the Treasury, so we presume he feels confident of landing the place. Col. Bosely arrived home Saturday.

CONGRESSMEN BERRY and Wheeler voted for McMillin for Speaker, and Settle voted for Bailey. The other four Kentucky Silverites did not put in appearance at the caucus.

GOV. BRADLEY has issued an additional proclamation including among matters to be considered by the Legislature the question of an additional Circuit Judge for this district.

CONGRESS met yesterday in extraordinary session pursuant to the call of President McKinley. The Tariff Bill has been completed by Republican members of the Ways and Means Committee and will be taken up early.

For Society's Sake.

It was at Michael Hoolihan's wake that Mrs. Muldoon, Mrs. Keogh and Mrs. Flannigan were discussing the physical and mental pain which women sometimes endure for society's sake. Patrick Muldoon was an interested listener.

"Sure," said Mrs. Flannigan, "the most painful thing I ever endured for society's sake was wearin' number three shoes on me number four feet at me darter's weddin'. Me feet nearly kilt me intirely."

"Faith," remarked Mrs. Muldoon, "an' the most tryin' thing I ever experienced for society's sake was to look pleasant an' receive me guests when I saw me husband a-firtin' at our tin weddin' wid that frisky, red-haired, freckle-faced Mulcaby girl. Oi was mad all over."

"Well, the most painful thing I ever endured for society's sake," said Mrs. Keogh, "was to kape me composure an' entertain callers in the parlor when Oi could hear me drunken husband a-breakin' up the dishes in the kitchen Oi tell yez, Oi nearly exploded."

"Spakin' of bearin' pain for society's sake," observed Patrick Muldoon, "did any of yez ladies ever get shaved in a foive-cent shop on the Bowery?" [Walter Champ in Judge.]

Growing Children

One-third of all the children die before they are five years old. Most of them die of some wasting disease. They grow very slowly; keep thin in flesh; are fretful; food does not do them much good. You can't say they have any disease, yet they never prosper. A slight cold, or some stomach and bowel trouble takes them away easily.

SCOTT'S EMULSION of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites is just the remedy for growing children. It makes hard flesh; sound flesh; not soft, flabby fat. It makes strong bones, healthy nerves. It changes poor children to children rich in prosperity.

Book about it free for the asking. No substitute for Scott's Emulsion will do for the children what we know Scott's Emulsion will do. Get the genuine. For sale by all druggists at 50c. and $1.00. SCOTT & BOWNE, New York.

Let The Whole World Know The Good Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Does

HEART DISEASE, has its victim at a disadvantage. Always taught that heart disease is incurable, when the symptoms become well defined, the patient becomes alarmed and a nervous panic takes place. But when a sure remedy is found and a cure effected, after years of suffering, there is great rejoicing and desire to "let the whole world know." Mrs. Laura Wineinger, of Solikirk, Kansas, writes: "I desire to let the whole world know what Dr. Miles' Heart Cure has done for me. For ten years I had pain in my heart, shortness of breath, palpitation, pain in my left side, oppressed feeling in my chest, weak and hungry spells, bad dreams, could not lie on either side, was numb and suffered terribly. I took Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and before I finished the second bottle I felt its good effects. I feel now that I am fully recovered, and that Dr. Miles' Heart Cure saved my life." Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold on guarantee that first bottle benefits, or money refunded.

Theatrical And Otherwise—Remarks In The Foyer.

"IN OLD MADRID."

Francis Jones, the clever singing comedian and versatile actor, supported by a competent company, will begin an engagement Thursday night at the Paris Grand, giving high-class performances at cheap prices.

"In Old Madrid" will be produced Thursday night, and "The Follies of a Night" will be the bill Friday night. "In Old Madrid" will be repeated at the matinee and the engagement will close that night with "A Subject of the Czar." The Danville Advocate says: "Francis Jones and company gave 'Old Madrid' at the opera house Wednesday night and last night presented 'Follies of a Night.' Mr. Jones, while a young man, is one of the cleverest comedians as well as one of the most versatile actors that ever visited Danville. Both performances gave splendid satisfaction."

A RETURN ENGAGEMENT.

"The Sporting Craze," which was so well received at the opera house Saturday night will play a return engagement to-night at the Paris Grand. The farce is chock full of fun—fast and furious—and is played by an evenly balanced company. Geo. H. Adams, the well-known clown, did some unique specialties, and Carlin and Clark, two quaint Dutch comedians, made quite a hit. Frank Farley's bag punching act won an encore, and his bout with John Lester was decidedly interesting. Mrs. Geo. Adams, Tonina Adams, Lily Adams, Cecil Inverness, Maude Raymond and Alice Hanson each contributed some entertaining feature to the performance.
